

Rio De Janeiro

This is Rio De Janeiro. It is the capital of Brazil. The city is in the south of Brazil. It is the biggest city in the South America – the population is about 6,32 million. You can see a lot of famous places there. For example: Christ the Redeemer, Sugarloaft, Tijuca National Park, Botanical Gardens. It is near the sea. There are beautiful beaches called Copacabana and Ipanema. There is a lake in the city centre. There are many museums and churches. I think that Rio De Janeiro is the capital of football. In my opinion Ronaldinho and Pele are the best of the best football players. My favourite thing is Maracana Football Stadium. I love Brazil.
